

INTEGRATING CONTENT FROM MEDIA SOURCES

ABSTRACT

Content is delivered from media sources by searching the media sources for content and metadata based on a search
5 criteria, parsing the metadata from the sources, receiving user preference information from a user, integrating the content and the metadata according to the user preference information and based on the result of the parsing, and displaying an integrated content concurrently on one or more
10 user displays.